THAT OFFER OF $5,000.

Our readers will doubtless call to mind the offer so widely advertised for the past ten years by H. H. Warner & Co., the proprietors of Warnet's Safe Cure and Warner' Log Cabin Remedies, that they would pay $5,000 to any person who would prove to an impartial referee that they had ever published a testimony that was not genuine so far as they knew.

This offer had the ring of honesty about it, and as the matter has an especial interest just now we give a copy of the offer as it appears in the Messrs. H. H. Warner & Ca.'s pamphlet:

Philadelphia Record.

There is a romance connected with the Williamson, which formed a great commotion in social circles Philadelphia a third of a century ago. Mr. Williamson remained a bachelor all his life, but it was a narrow escape, for it was only the excessive timidity of the man which caused him to shirk at the last moment. Since his death the circumstances of the millionaire's only love venture has been recalled, and the story told below is vouched for by several of his friends who knew him in his rule that every Washington officz-holder money making days, when he was a famil- who gets $2,100, or over, has his boots iar figure along Third street.
